Third-Party Defendants.

Plaintiffs, Brittany and Anthony Lopez, et al. (hereinafter "Plaintiffs") and Defendants/Third-Party Plaintiffs US Home Corporation and Greystone Nevada, LLC (hereinafter collectively, "Developers"), by and through their respective counsel, hereby jointly request that the Court continue the scheduling order's expert-disclosure deadlines by forty-five days to allow the parties additional time to work towards a global settlement before Plaintiffs incur substantial costs by performing destructive testing of the homes involved in this construction defect litigation. The requested amendment will not change the current discovery cut-off date. All of the third-party defendants have been notified by Plaintiffs' and Developers of their intention to file this motion and none of the third-party defendants oppose the continuance. Therefore, this motion is unopposed. A copy of the proposed amended scheduling order is attached hereto as Exhibit "A."

This motion is made and based upon the memorandum of points and authorities filed concurrently herewith, all pleadings and papers on file herein, the declarations attached hereto, and such oral argument as may be heard.

MEMORANDUM OF POINTS AND AUTHORITIES

I. CASE HISTORY AND CURRENT SCHEDULING ORDER

This is a construction defect case involving 25 homes in the Sierra Ranch master community in North Las Vegas, Nevada. Plaintiffs' complaint was filed on June 22, 2016. (ECF No. 1-1). Developers removed this case to federal court on July 25, 2016 (ECF No. 1) and filed a motion to dismiss Plaintiffs' complaint on August 1, 2016. (ECF No. 5). This case was stayed from September 16, 2016 to February 1, 2017 while Developers' motion to dismiss the Plaintiffs' complaint was pending. (ECF No. 17, 26) Developers answered the complaint on March 22, 2017

(ECF No. 40) and filed a third-party complaint against over 80 third-party defendant subcontractors who performed work on the Plaintiffs' homes. (ECF No. 41). Many of the third-party defendant subcontractors are out of business, and therefore, the Developers have been working to notify their carriers of the lawsuit so that they can assign defense counsel and participate in the litigation. .

The original scheduling order was entered on March 22, 2017. (ECF No. 38). The scheduling order was amended on June 5, 2017. The current scheduling order deadlines are as follows:

Date	Current Scheduling Order Deadline
3/30/2017	FRCP 26(a)(1) Initial Disclosures Exchanged
9/11/17	Plaintiffs' Final Expert Reports due (FRCP 26(a)(2))
10/11/17	Developers' Final Expert Reports due
11/10/17	Third-Party Defendants' Final Expert Reports due
12/22/17	Last day to amend pleadings or add parties
1/19/18	Interim Status Report due
3/22/18	Discovery cut-off date
4/20/18	Last day to file dispositive motions
5/21/18	Joint Pretrial Order due

The parties held mediations on May 30- May 31, 2017 and July 21, 2017. Developers have been able to reach settlements with over two-thirds of the third-party defendant subcontractors during the mediations, and are making settlement progress with additional parties. The parties continue to engage in settlement negotiations in an attempt to avoid, if possible, the Plaintiffs incurring substantial destructive testing costs. However, under the current scheduling order, Plaintiffs' final expert reports are due on September 11, 2017. In preparation for its final expert reports, Plaintiffs intend to destructively test all of the homes, at a substantial expense beginning on August 17, 2017 to meet this deadline. The parties would like to conduct further settlement negotiations to attempt to resolve this case before the Plaintiffs incur this expense.

II. REQUEST TO AMEND THE SCHEDULING ORDER

Plaintiffs and Developers request that all of the expert disclosure deadlines in the scheduling order be continued by forty-five days to allow the parties additional time to work towards a global settlement before the Plaintiffs' incur the substantial expense of destructively testing all 25 homes involved in this action. The requested continuance will not change the discovery cut-off date of May 22, 2018. The amended scheduling order is attached hereto as Exhibit "A" and includes the following dates (the requested amended dates are in bold):

Date	Amended Scheduling Order Deadline
3/30/2017	FRCP 26(a)(1) Initial Disclosures Exchanged
10/24/17	Plaintiffs' Final Expert Reports due (FRCP 26(a)(2))
11/24/17	Developers' Final Expert Reports due
12/22/17	Third-Party Defendants' Final Expert Reports due
12/22/17	Last day to amend pleadings or add parties
1/19/18	Interim Status Report due
3/22/18	Discovery cut-off date
4/20/18	Last day to file dispositive motions
5/21/18	Joint Pretrial Order due

Plaintiffs and Developers notified all of the non-settled third-party defendant subcontractors of their intention to seek this continuance and asked that they respond with any opposition they may have before this motion was filed. None of the third-party defendants opposed the continuance. Therefore, this joint motion is unopposed. Further, good cause exists for the requested amended scheduling order because the parties have not been dilatory in litigating this action and amended scheduling order will facilitate the parties' settlement negotiations, and will accommodate the needs of this litigation.

Third-Party Defendants.

The above-named parties, by and through their respective counsel of record, hereby submit their Stipulated Discovery Plan and Scheduling Order pursuant to Fed. R. Civ. P. 26(f) and Local Rule 26-1 for the Court's approval.

Special scheduling review is required pursuant to LR 26-1(d). Because this case involves construction defect allegations within 25 homes, the parties require more than 180 days for discovery. The parties request 365 days for discovery. Defendants have filed a third-party complaint against approximately 90 subcontractors who worked on the Plaintiffs' homes. The third-party defendants will request inspections of the Plaintiffs' homes. Further, Plaintiffs will need to complete its testing of the subject homes. Plaintiffs' experts will need time to prepare final defect lists and cost of repair estimates for the subject homes. The Defendants' and third-party defendants' experts will need time to inspect each of the defects alleged in each of the

1 residences and prepare expert reports and costs of repair. In addition, Defendants will require time
2 to take the depositions of the owners of each of the 25 homes at issue in this case, as well as the
3 parties' persons most knowledgeable, (PMKs), and experts. (Plaintiffs and third-party defendants
4 will also need time to take the same from Defendants.)

5 1. Meeting.

6 Pursuant to Fed. R. Civ. P. 26(f) and LR 26-1, a telephonic meeting was held on March 15,
7 2017, and was attended by: Sarah Odia, counsel for the Defendants, Jonathan Lattie, counsel for 8 the Plaintiffs, and David Pursiano, counsel for the Plaintiffs.

9 2. Initial Disclosures.

10 The parties will exchange the information required by Fed. R. Civ. P. 26(a)(1) by March
11 30, 2017, which is 14-days after the Rule 26(f) conference.

12 3. Mediations.

13 The parties may schedule mediations with mediator David S. Lee, Esq. All mediations
14 must be attended by all parties and/or their representatives and their insurance carriers. The 15 mediator's fees will be split between the parties, with the Plaintiffs, Defendants, and Third-Party
16 Defendants each paying one-third (1/3) of the mediator's fees.

17 4. Discovery Plan.

18 The parties jointly propose to the Court the following discovery plan:

19 Subject of Discovery. Discovery will be needed on all issues raised in Plaintiffs'
20 Complaint and NRS Chapter 40 notices, including the following subjects: Plaintiffs' claims for 21 breach of implied warranties, breach of express warranties, negligence, and strict liability;
22 damages, including computations and amounts. Further, discovery will be needed on all of 23 Defendants' affirmative defenses that will be asserted in any answer Defendants' will ultimately
24 file. Discovery will also be needed on all of the claims asserted in the Defendants' third-party
25 complaint that Defendants will file.

26 Should discovery be phased, limited or focused: Not at this time, but each party reserves
27 the right to make a motion of the Court on this issue at any time.

28 Disclosure of electronically-stored information ("ESI"): The Parties will set up a document depository at Litigation Services. All disclosures and/or productions of documents will be deposited in the depository in electronic format on CD-ROM or DVD-ROM in .pdf format.

5. Discovery Cut-Off Date.

As required by LR 26-1(e)(1), Defendants filed their FRCP 12(b) motion to dismiss Plaintiffs' complaint on August 1, 2016. (ECF No. 5). Defendants' will file an answer to the complaint by March 22, 2017. The number of days required for discovery is 365 days from that date. Accordingly, Discovery is proposed to close on March 22, 2018, which is 365 days after Defendants will file their answer.

6. Amending the Pleadings and Adding Parties.

The parties shall have until December 22, 2017, to amend the pleadings or add additional parties. This is ninety (90) days prior to the close of discovery.

7. Fed. R. Civ. P. 26(a)(2) Disclosure (Experts).

Disclosures identifying Plaintiffs' experts and Plaintiffs' final expert reports shall be made by October 24, 2017. Disclosures identifying Defendants' experts and Defendants' expert reports shall be made by November 24, 2017. This is thirty-days after the deadline for Plaintiffs' expert disclosures. Disclosures identifying the Third-Party Defendants' experts and Third-Party Defendants' expert reports shall be made by December 22, 2017. This is thirty days after the deadline for Defendants' expert disclosures.

8. Dispositive Motions.

The parties shall have until April 20, 2018, to file dispositive motions. This is thirty (30) days after the close of discovery.

9. Pretrial Order.

The Joint Pretrial Order shall be filed no later than May 21, 2018. This is thirty (30) days after the date set for the filing of dispositive motions. In the event dispositive motions are filed, the date for filing the Joint Pretrial Order shall be suspended until thirty (30) days after decision on the dispositive motions or by further order of the Court.

10. Stipulations Regarding Limitations or Conditions or Additional Discovery.

The parties will proceed to engage in and supplement all discovery as permitted under the

1 Federal Rules of Civil Procedure and Local Court Rules of the District Court of Nevada,
2 including, but not limited to depositions, interrogatories, requests for production of documents,
3 requests for admissions and expert disclosures.

4 11. Interim Status Report.

5 On or before January 19, 2018, the parties shall file an Interim Status Report, as required
6 by LR 26-3, stating the time estimated for trial, three alternative available dates for trial, and 7 whether or not trial will be proceeding or affected by substantive motions.

8 12. Later Appearing Parties.

9 A copy of this discovery plan and scheduling order shall be served on any person served
10 after it is entered, or, if additional Defendants shall appear, within five (5) days of their first
11 appearance. This discovery plan and scheduling order shall apply to such later-appearing parties,
12 unless the Court, on motion and for good cause shown, orders otherwise.

13 13. Extension or Modification of the Discovery Plan and Scheduling Order.

14 Applications to extend any date set by the discovery plan/scheduling order shall be
15 received by the Court twenty (20) days before the date fixed for completion of discovery, or 16 within twenty (20) days before the expiration of any extension thereof that may have been
17 approved by the Court.

18 14. Alternative Dispute Resolution/Mediation.

19 The undersigned attorneys affirm they have met and conferred about the possibility of 20 using alternative dispute resolution processes and they have agreed to the mediation protocols set
21 forth herein.

22 15. Alternative Forms of Case Disposition. The undersigned parties certify that they
23 have considered but have not consented to trial by a magistrate judge under 28 U.S.C. §63(c) and 24 Fed. R. Civ. P. 73 and do not believe the matter complies for use of the Short Trial Program.
